ORAL ORDER
(Passed on 2nd April, 2007)

By interim order dated 06.02.2006 in writ petition No.505 of 2006. this Court had stayed the orders passed by the respondents dated 30.12.2005.

(2) The respondents on 07.02.2006, have cancelled the orders of promotion issued in favour of the petitioner.

(3) Admittedly, the petitioner has communicated the order passed by this Court to the respondents only after 15.02.2006, i.e. much later than the order passed by the respondents.

(4) In order to take cognizance of the allegations made in the contempt petition, the first and foremost is that the respondents should be made aware of the interim orders passed by this Court. If the respondents were not communicated with the interim order passed by this Court and if they have done anything in the exigencies of service, that cannot be said as an act of disobedience of the orders and directions issued by this Court. In view of the above, I do not intend to take cognizance to this contempt petition and accordingly it is rejected. Ordered accordingly.
